

I Cannot Think of Them as Dead

test: from Frederick Lucian Hosmer, 1882
#73 in Hymns for the Celebration of Life

msic: Irish trad. Remember the Poor
Arr. HKJ

♩ = 92 MM

Women unison

Men

Piano

5

them as — dead Who walk with me no — more; A - long the path of — life I — tread They are — but gone be - fore. And still their si - lent

Pno.

9

Pno.

parts

I Cannot Think of Them as Dead

13 unison
min - is - try With - in my heart has place As - when on - earth they walked with me And met me face to - face.

17

21
Their lives are made for - ev - er - mine; What they to - me have

Pno.

I Cannot Think of Them as Dead

25
been Has left hence - forth its seal and sign En - grav - en deep with -

25
Pno.

29 parts
in. Mine are they by an own - er - ship Nor time nor death can

29
Pno.

33 unison
free; For God has giv'n to love to keep Its own e - ter - nal -

33
Pno.

I Cannot Think of Them as Dead

37

1. 2. parts unison

ly. ly. For God has giv'n to love to keep Its Pno.

41

rit. unison

own e ter - nal - ly. Its Pno.

43

rit. rit.

own e ter - nal - ly.

Pno.